

Prize ANN: International Journal of Military History and Historiography Early-Career Paper Prize

The International Journal of Military History and Historiography (formerly International Bibliography of Military History, IBMH) invites submissions for its IJMH Early-Career Paper Prize.

The Prize will be awarded to an academic article of outstanding quality in the field of international military history written by a graduate student or an early-career scholar, which will have been published in the 2017 (37) volume of the IJMH. The author of the winning article will be officially announced in the first issue of 2018 (38/1) and on the journal's website, and receive a €1,000 cash prize.

In line with the IJMH's general guidelines, submissions should be an original contribution to the field of military history that is of interest to an international readership, e.g., a topic involving more than one nation and, preferably, based on multi-archival research. There is no chronological limitation. The IJMH publishes articles ranging from antiquity to the contemporary period, provided that the subject is historical and the methodology meets/fulfils academic standards.

Submission Requirements

Articles should be based extensively on primary research, must not have been previously published in another form or outlet, and should not be currently under consideration by another journal or book series. The submitted work has to comply with the journal's style sheet, be between 8,000 and 10,000 words (including footnotes), and be thoroughly referenced. For further information on style and referencing, please visit www.brill.com/ijmh.

The prize is open to graduate students who are currently registered at a higher education institute, or to those who have obtained their doctoral degree after January 1, 2011.

The editorial team accepts submissions on a rolling basis, but in order to allow for sufficient time for the peer review process, early submissions are welcome. Articles should be submitted in PDF and Word Format, together with a short CV to the Scientific Editor, Dr Marco Wyss (m.wyss@chi.ac.uk).
